FEDERAL GRAND JURY RETURNS INDICTMENTS

Madison, Wisconsin -- A federal grand jury in the Western District of Wisconsin, sitting in Madison, returned the following indictments today. You are advised that a charge is merely an accusation and that a defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

TWO MADISON MEN CHARGED WITH DRUG OFFENSES

Johnnie R. Plummer, 35, and Corey Davis, 26, both of Madison, Wisconsin, were charged in a four-count indictment with offenses involving the distribution and possession of crack cocaine. Plummer and Davis are both charged with distribution of crack cocaine on February 12, 2007 and possession with intent to distribute five grams or more of crack cocaine on February 20, 2007. In addition, Plummer is charged with distribution of five grams or more of crack cocaine on February 2, 2007, and with being a felon in possession of a firearm on February 20, 2007.

If convicted, Plummer and Davis face a maximum penalty of 40 years, and not less than five years, in federal prison for the offenses involving five grams or more of crack cocaine. The distribution offense alleged to have occurred on February 12 carries a maximum penalty of 20 years. Plummer faces a maximum penalty of 10 years for the firearms offense.

The charges against these two men are the result of an investigation by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Rita M. Rumbelow.

MADISON MAN CHARGED WITH POSSESSION OF HEROIN

Stanley F. Jackson, aka Oohwee, 25, of Madison, Wisconsin, is charged with possession of heroin with intent to distribute. The indictment alleges that he possessed the heroin on August 25, 2006.

If convicted, Jackson faces a maximum penalty of 20 years in federal prison. The charge against him is the result of an investigation by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Timothy M. O'Shea.
